OUR PROGRAMS

Join our 7-day leadership programs in D.C to study the ideas that shape our world today in light of Catholic intellectual tradition. Prepare to go deeper and higher: intellectual discussion, cultural engagement, professional growth and long-lasting friendships.

APPLY TODAY!

All admitted participants receive a comprehensive scholarship. Participants are responsible for covering costs of transportation from their countries (flights) and a Registration Fee of $299 USD.

Participants pay In Altum a fee of $299 to cover the program. Note that the true costs of running In Altum, including its year-round efforts of recruiting and selecting participants, cost more than $700 USD per participant. The reason participants pay less than half of the real cost of In Altum is because In Altum is supported by donors who believe in the importance of its mission.
